LAURELS FOR DECATUR.

Victory at Monticello—Canton 19 Captures First Prize at the Drill.

The 1890 Celebration to be held in Decatur.

The Champaign district celebration of the 70th anniversary of Old Fellowship was held at Monticello yesterday, and it was quite a success in point of enthusiasm, interest and profit to the order generally. There were fully 700 members of the different branches of Old Fellows in the parade, and there were several thousand people in the city to witness the proceedings.

The gates of Monticello were thrown wide open for the hearty welcome of all visitors, and the two depots and escorting them to Rhinehart's opera house, where at 11 o'clock the anniversary exercises were held in the presence of a great crowd. There was vocal and instrumental music, coronation exercises, a welcome speech by Mayor Rodgers, and an address by Hon. Alfred C. Brown, of Springfield, brought the grand representation to the Sovereign Grand Lodge. The parade occurred after dinner, Colonel George W. Patterson, of Decatur, in command.

DECATUR AT THE FRONT.
Accompanied by Goodman's Band, Canton Decatur No. 19, P. M., were at the celebration, wearing their handsome symbolic uniforms. The Canton was given the place of honor in the parade and outdressed all other Cantons in appearance and military movements. "Patt" Canton and Zoum Canton were in line and made a very creditable showing. Following the parade came the competitive drill for two cash prizes of $50 and $25. At 3 o'clock one of the streets was cleared and Colonel Patterson called upon the Cantons to come to the front for the drill. Canton Decatur with Capt. W. H. Elwood and 18 men, was the only organization to enter, the other Cantons for some reason unknown to a reason which the modesty of the Decatur victors will not allow us to even intimate - refused to engage in the drill. Captain Elwood gave the Canton an extra drill for about 30 minutes on one of the streets, the judges being Gen. Orendorff, Lieut. Higgins, regular army officer, of the Illinois University, Champaign, and Adj. Gen. Stoddard, of Springfield.

At the close of the drill the Canton came to a company front and were at once awarded the first prize of $50, the highest honor in the parade. The judges, General Orendorff, delivered a brief address, praising Canton Decatur and its captain in a highly complimentary manner.

The key victory of Canton Decatur at the celebration was unlooked for. The membership had expected sharp competition and had been drilled thoroughly by Captain Elwood for the contest. Their appearance in the parade seemed to have been enough to paralyze the visiting Cantons and they doubtless thought it best to avoid complete defeat by standing on the sidewalk.

The officers and members of the Decatur Canton are as follows: G. W. Patterson, Colonel of the regiment; W. H. Elwood, Captain; George Bell, Lieutenant; Chas. Edwards, G. H. Brown, John Kerk, Daniel Moore, John Irwin, A. T. Grant, Cliff Betzer, Charles M. Lytle, L. W. Krumm, H. E. Krumm, George Lyons, W. W. Cresser, James Amund, W. E. Jones, E. B. E. Leach, Newt Davis, Robert and Adolph Mueller, Ed Deitz, Ed Sussner, Ben Boynton, F. M. Pratt, Frank P. Babbly, Wm. Towling, Harry Aldrich, J. F. Johnson, John M. D. O. Moll, Nashville Mayor and J. M. Krumm.

COMING TO DECATUR.
At the business meeting it was resolved to hold the 1890 celebration in Decatur, and it was a great day for Decatur the following officers of the district association were elected:
President - G. W. Patterson.
Treasurer - L. W. Krumm.
Corresponding Secretary - L. W. Krumm.
Recording Secretary - C. M. Lytle.

The Canton made a triumphant return to Decatur at 9:10 o'clock, and gave a fine parade as they marched through the streets and around the city. In the parade the members of the Canton were highly pleased with their trip, none more so than the members of Goodman's band, whose music added largely to the enjoyment of the celebration.

Discharged.
A. L. Straight, the Walnut brake man who was held for complicity in the killing of Miss Weber at Springfield, and an examination yesterday at Springfield, and was discharged for want of evidence. Conductor Sims has not yet been arrested.

Remember George.
As Tuesday will be observed as the centennial of George Washington's inauguration as president, that will be a very appropriate day for everybody sending the postoffice to step into the lobby and help along the Washington movement fund by dropping their contributions for that purpose into the little box tucked up against the wall. Put in a nickel, a dime or a quarter. Mrs. C. A. Evans, who has the box in charge, will count the contents of the box Monday, so that it can be given to the poor, generous and thoughtful the people were on Tuesday. Remember George and the movement fund.

The Rebekah Celebration.
The 70th anniversary of Old Fellowship was celebrated by the Daughters of Rebekah last night at the hall of Celestial Lodge, a large number of members and friends being present to enjoy the occasion. The Light Guard orchestra played selections, and the address by John Irwin, giving the history of the organization, was one of the chief events of the evening. The following was the programme observed:
Invocation - On the altar.
Reading of the constitution.
Reading of the minutes.
Reading of the letters.

A Party for the Choir.
Mrs. G. A. Lind is among the many Episcopal ladies who take a motherly interest in the boy choir of St. John's church, and last night at her residence she gave the members and their girlfriends a reception and party at her home on West North street. There was a delicious refreshment, and music by Corriano Shillabarger and Lena Nelson. The company included: Eddie Benson, Willie Brinkman, Claude Bury, Will Benton, Ed Rogers, Erlene Clayton, Arthur Hartley, Hugh Henson, Will Henson, Ed Hovey, George Hard, Harry Hard, Charlie Logan, Guy Scoville, Murray Milburn, Harvey Scoville, Ella Hovey, Ada Hovey, Edith Durfee, Corriano Shillabarger, Alice Piper, Jo Hartley, Lena Nelson, Emma Can, Mollie Tuttle, Dessie Milburn, Bonnie Bartholomew, Arthur Wilburn, Charles Rose, Annie Walden and Corrie Griswold. The Easter card souvenirs were designed by Mrs. M. R. Piper. Among the grown folks present were Rev. and Mrs. M. M. Cookin, Mrs. Ed Rogers, Mrs. W. O. Olson, Mrs. John, Miss Burrows and Bering Burrows.

Probable Fatal Accident.

A very serious accident occurred at the residence of Augustus Reiser, a farmer living three miles southeast of Blue Mound, yesterday, which may result in the death of Reiser's child. Mr. Reiser came in from ploughing on the farm at the noon hour and while leading his team through a gate into the barn lot, he looked around and saw his little 2-year old daughter following behind the team and at the same instant discovered a two year old colt running with full speed in the direction of the child. Before he could get to the child the colt jumped over it, striking it with one hind foot on the back of the head, knocking the child senseless to the ground. Dr. Harvey was called and on examination found a bad induration and fracture of the skull a little above and about an inch to the right of the left ear. Assisted by Drs. Foster and McKennah, a surgical operation was performed and the broken bones brought back to their proper place. When the doctors left the child was resting quietly, and it is inflammation does not set in the child may possibly recover.

There was a large audience out last evening to see "Sundays of a Great City" at the opera house. The company is strong with such old favorites as Annie Ward Tiffany, W. W. Allen, John Marshall and W. H. Burton. A new face was Miss Rose Tiffany, the heroine, who made a good impression. The special scenery was a feature of the performance. Some of Joseph Jefferson are managers of the production. They are making money.

Give Us the College.
Prof. Geo. W. Brown, manager of the flourishing business colleges at Jacksonville and Peoria, and a personal friend of E. L. Martin, the coal dealer, was in Decatur last evening. While here he noticed the growth and activity of our city, and expressed a desire to establish a college in Decatur. If he can get a suitable room in which to open the school rent free for a term of five years he guarantees an attendance of 300 to 500 students each year, the students to come from among Decatur families and from distant points. Professor Brown is widely known as a teacher of acknowledged ability. His success at Peoria and Jacksonville is sufficient to commend him to our people. An effort should be made to induce the professor to locate one of his colleges here.

Will Attend in a Body.
The members of Bonhamman Commandery No. 9, Knights Templar, will attend the centennial union service at the Baptist church Tuesday forenoon, in a body, in citizens dress.
